FIND THE HIDDEN VIRUS CARRIERS

By Ben Spenser, Glenn Hoag and Ben Horton
HEALTH officials are desperately trying to find coronavirus carriers unwittingly spreading the deadly illness. They fear the contagion may only show mild symptoms and do not realise they are infected. The virus disappeared last night when it first came from the airport - bringing the number in the UK to 36. The race is on to find out who they are and how to stop them from spreading the virus. It is a battle that will be fought in the weeks ahead. The virus is spreading in the UK and it is a battle that will be fought in the weeks ahead. The virus is spreading in the UK and it is a battle that will be fought in the weeks ahead.

BORIS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Ten days after falling ill with virus, PM is admitted 'as a precaution'
By Rachel Martin, Policy Editor
BORIS Johnson was taken to hospital last night more than a week after he tested positive for coronavirus. Doctors advised him to go for precautionary tests because the symptoms have persisted for ten days. The virus is spreading in the UK and it is a battle that will be fought in the weeks ahead.
