

Transcript of Oral History Interview with an Unknown Interviewee

Interviewee: Unknown

Interviewer: Jose Olvera

Date: 04/01//2020

Location (Interviewee): unknown

Location (Interviewer): unknown

Transcription Equipment: Otter.ai

Interview Technology: Zoom-recording

Abstract: Jose Olvera interviews an unknown student about how the pandemic has affected their religion.

Jose Olvera 00:00

Well, regarding this religion, public, & life it's a question like how has a corona virus affected your faith?

Interviewee 00:13

Okay, um. I think if anything, it's made it stronger now with this virus.

Jose Olvera 00:21

Is your religious community still gathering?

Interviewee 00:25

No, only online.

Jose Olvera 00:28

How has it affected your participation before the corona virus and now?

Interviewee 00:34

I think I participate more, because we have- It's easier access online than physically having to go somewhere.

Jose Olvera 00:41

Is your religious community including or services to help with a corona virus efforts?

Interviewee 00:47

Yeah.

Jose Olvera 00:49

How?

Interviewee 00:51

How is- how's? How are they, the church, helping?

Jose Olvera 00:54

Yes, with the corona virus.

Interviewee 00:56

They work with like, they work with like, one of the relief programs, so they've been out there helping with that and financially as well, sending money.

Jose Olvera 01:07

Okay, well, thank you very much, very much.

Interviewee 01:09

You're welcome. No problem. Jose, you have a good day an take care.

Jose Olvera 01:13

You too. Bye.

Interviewee 01:14

Thank you. Bye bye