

Matthew Williams

HST 580

02/07/2021

Module 5 Healthcare Call for Submission

-Announce: The Covid-19 Journal of the Plague Year is an open-source public digital archive if the experiences of people during the historic Covid pandemic. The healthcare collection represents a small community of people who have had a unique perspective of the pandemic.

1. Collection Name: Healthcare

2. Stories Relevant to Collection: Stories of how Covid changed the field, stories of good and bad experiences, stories of going to work when most of the world wasn't.

3. Why Stories Matter: Healthcare had to continue to run as normal in the most abnormal of times without any delay or decline.

4. Examples of Stories: Having to don extensive personal protective equipment before entering patient's rooms where there were time-sensitive emergencies occurring. Experiences of great human kindness witnessed or performed by healthcare providers during the pandemic.

-Call to Action: To all healthcare providers- The Journal of the Plague Year would like to invite you to add your unique and valuable perspectives on the Covid pandemic to our ongoing pandemic archive.

Inform:

1. Title: Add a title to your submission

2. Description: Describe your submission or experience

3. Contributor's Name: Add your name or contribute anonymously
4. Types of Submissions: Text stories, pictures, videos, social media, art, websites, articles, and blog posts.
5. Submission Timeframe: The journal is currently active and accepting submissions
6. Link for Submission: <https://covid-19archive.org/s/archive/page/Share>

-Curator's Contact Information: mwill160@asu.edu

-Brand: #FirstResponders, #EMS, #nurses, #doctors, #healthcare providers