

Agricultural intensification

Associated with 50% of emerging zoonotic diseases since 1940

Over-exploitation of wildlife

Unsustainable, illegal or unregulated trade in high risk species

Urbanization and industry

Increasing human-wildlife contacts

Travel and transport

More international flights

Demand for animal protein

Meat production up by 260% in past 50 years

Food supply chains

Complex chains increase risk of contamination

Climate change

Many zoonoses thrive in warmer, wetter, conditions

DRIVERS OF ZOOONOTIC PANDEMIC RISK

