

Three questions for religions and Individuals of the World in 2020 :

1. How does your faith address the issue of 'evil', 'suffering', or 'sin' within the world?
2. What does your belief have to say of the relationship between the individual and the world?
3. What do your teachings define as a moral and ethical life?